	In this phase, I got to try to use the language we were learning in new, interesting ways.
	Are there other activities you can think of that would allow practice of the past tense endings?
	I can use language from the story in other settings and in my real life.
	Please explain your level of comfort using the language from the story, particularly the vocabulary and past tense words.
	I used technology to enhance my learning experience.
	Are there other activities we could do in class that involve technology and past tense words/endings?
